Taste of the county

Something for everyone

You’ll be able to find plenty to see and do when you visit the area, from dining at Michelin-star restaurants to visiting historic castles which date back as far as the 12th century. You can also expect to be able to immerse yourself in the natural beauty of the area with quaint villages, rolling hills, and endless green spaces. A chance to kick back, take a breath, and spend quality time with your family and friends.

As an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), Ribble Valley holiday homes truly are ideally located for anyone hoping to retreat to peace and quiet or to explore the exhilarating adventures of the countryside. The Ribble Valley holds plenty of charm and much of the district is made up of the Forest of Bowland as well as being home to historical towns and villages, such as Clitheroe and Whalley.

Quaint towns

Holgates Ribble Valley just outside the village of Gisburn is only a short drive from larger nearby towns such as Clitheroe and Colne. Perfectly placed in the heart of the Ribble Valley with the Forest of Bowland and Yorkshire Dales National Park only a short drive away, staying at Holgates Ribble Valley is the perfect holiday park location.

Luscious landscapes

The Ribble Valley boasts everything from luscious landscapes to adventurous outings and more. The beautiful backdrop of this area is the perfect place to own a holiday home. It is a place to escape from everyday life, relax and unwind. It could be your own slice of heaven amongst the rolling hills. A chance to kick back, take a breath, and spend quality time with your family and friends.
